

A Gerwig-ian Getaway: Barbie Paradise at Forte Village in Sardinia, IT

Greta Gerwig's Barbie movie is set to be the film of the summer and with it comes wishes for all things pink and perfect. Movie magic becomes a reality for kids of all ages at Forte Village this summer. The luxury family resort, located on the Italian island of Sardinia along the southern coast, is home to a full-sized Barbie dreamhouse, a variety of Barbie-themed activities, and two specific programs for guests ages two to ten: the Barbie Glamour Package and the Barbie Pink Package. The Barbie Glamour Package offers the opportunity to stay in Barbie's House and includes a Barbie doll gift, Barbie Spa access, and admission to Barbie Fashion Academy workshops. The Barbie Pink package includes all of the above except for Barbie Spa access. Both packages allow guests to attend Forte Village's Barbie film screenings, dance classes, and Barbie-dedicated parties. The Barbie life at Forte Village is a pink paradise surprise amidst the 50 hectares of lush gardens and white sand beaches.

Just how Barbie does the experience get?

- Barbie's House is furnished to perfection with official Barbie bedding and a beauty case stocked with toiletries inspired by the iconic doll.
- Barbie Spa provides guests with manicures and face masks.
- Barbie Fashion Academy holds workshops from Monday to Friday and guides children through making personalized jewelry, photo frames, and t-shirts. Guests can then model their creations in a fashion show.
- Barbie's various lifestyles can be played out by those young and old at Forte Village's extensive range of sports academies and activities, including tennis, biking, fencing, swimming, climbing, dancing, DJing, and more.

Forte Village is home to 5 five-star hotels, 3 four-star hotels, and 13 luxury villas. Along with a myriad of onsite activities and experiences for adults, Forte Village's onsite spa, Acquaforte Thalasso & Spa, is known for its rejuvenating thalassotherapy treatment that includes a circuit of six saltwater pools.
